Just between me and you,

The problem I think is Eric's lack of enough pick-up dates. He has a restaurant/bar, a liquor store and very large hotel all using the same single dumpster. Plus it is not locked so all the others around poach it.

It needs picked up and least 4 times a week! This is not the place to scrimp and only because all the BID shareholders are helping pay for the added clean-up does he seem to get by with it.

We have the dumpster behind Porky's picked up 4 times a week as does Niko's.

This mess is what initially set off Bruce and I have to admit he has a point especially considering who is at fault.

Ya, I just drove by and it looks like it is picked up, do you have any guidance to avoid a situation like that in the future?

Sorry, I only work wed-fri or else I would of responded earlier.

Thank you,

That trash has been there since before the weekend. Looks like Greg moved it from up against his building to Eric's building.
